

The Best Thing about My Library

The best thing about the library is checking out books by myself. Using my own library card and the scanner is fun. I like using the touch screen. I like getting my own receipt that tell when the books are due. I don't get to do that much outside the library.

Reading is like a movie in your head. I like reading. It's fun especially because I can pick out and check out my own books.